"Where does happiness come from?

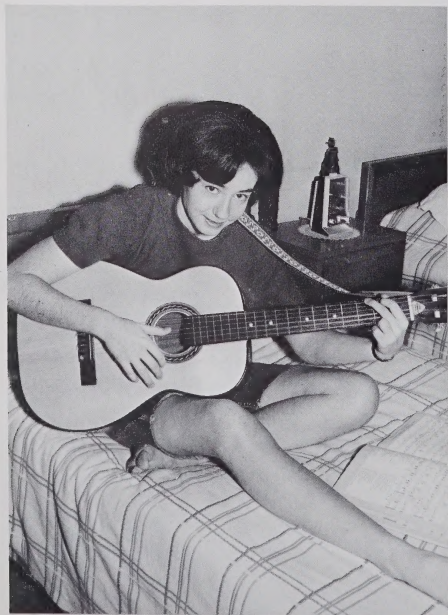

What makes happiness start?

How does it come out of nowhere

And into a person's heart?"

"Sometimes it's part of a dream come true"

"Or perhaps it's just doing what we like to do"

*"Happiness comes
from laughing--
Laughing together"*

*"We often find happiness
In learning new things---
In a job we've done well
And the praise that it brings."*

"Happiness comes from a prayer we've said---"

*"---And from the magic
of being with someone we love."*

*"And when happiness seems
To be nowhere around,
Remember . . . it's waiting
Just to be found."*

Dedication

The class of 1968 would like to express their gratitude to one who has given never-ending devotion to her position as an instructor. Not only has she been a guiding force in the molding of the basic nursing foundation of countless students, but also she had devoted innumerable hours in the extra-curricular realms of our school. She is a delightful inspiration who has achieved our respect and admiration through her poise and self-control. It is for these qualities that we pay tribute to Mrs. Jo Ann Smith—an enthusiastic, understanding, and patient friend of all students.

Mrs. Jo Ann Smith, R.N., A.D.

Miss Anne Casstevens, R.N.

In Appreciation

We, the class of 1968, wish to express deep appreciation to one who has shared her vibrant personality and much of her time with those around her to promote the phases of High Point Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in which she is most interested. We have found her to be a woman who expresses a genuine interest and concern for her students during their operating room instruction. She has unselfishly and willingly served as our inspiring class counselor and a friend for whom we have developed respect and admiration. It is to you, Miss Anne Casstevens, that we express our genuine appreciation for all that you have contributed to the class of 1968.

MY DAILY PRAYER

If I can do some good today,
If I can serve along life's way,
If I can something helpful say,
Lord, show me how.

If I can right a human wrong,
If I can help to make one strong,
If I can cheer with smile or song,
Lord, show me how.

If I can aid one in distress,
If I can make a burden less,
If I can spread more happiness,
Lord, show me how.

Class Will

We, the members of the Class of 1968 of the High Point Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, knowing that the end is near and that all must depart from the world of the student nurse, do hereby bequeath this last will and testament.

ARTICLE I

To our school we leave a part of ourselves that somehow we cannot take with us.

ARTICLE II

To the Nursing Education Department we leave our deepest gratitude which is only part of the debt we owe.

ARTICLE III

To our "little sisters", the rising Seniors, we leave affiliation, hard work, the Annual, and best wishes for a wonderful year.

ARTICLE IV

To the rising Junior Class we leave the dreams that we hope will be fulfilled for you, too.

ARTICLE V

I, Elaine Ayers, leave my nickname "Mother" to any girl who can fill the role.

I, Jerry Blake, leave my sniffles to anyone who needs a nervous habit.

I, Jean Coleman, leave the bags under my eyes, the holes in my shoes, the ragged uniforms, and the varicose veins to anyone who feels the way I do—that it's worth it.

I, Betty Cook, leave my 11:30 lunch with "TJC" to Gerry Johnson.

I, Brenda Dobson, leave the "extras" of nursing to any girl who worries quite a lot.

I, Linda Fryar, leave my ability to take advantage of the resources at hand to Martha Brown, in hopes that she has better resources than I did.

I, Carrie Johnson, leave to my "little sisters", Gail and Patsy, my ability to come in quietly after celebrating the end of Med-Surg III.

I, Sandy Jones, leave to Sandy Key and Treva Lynch my love for New York City and their love for "Catawba Pink".

I, Sandra Ledwell, leave to "Huey" a special thank you for making my last two years of nursing school much more enjoyable.

I, Nancy Markham, leave to begin two new careers.

I, Shirley Metters, leave all my long days and lonely nights to Betty Mashburn.

I, Betty Mitcham, leave my "useless BCP's" to anyone who needs them.

I, Linda Saintsing, leave my well-worn path to N.C.N.B. to anyone who has the ability to balance the bankbook for the Senior Class.

I, Dare Snider, leave, leaving nothing.

I, Ann Pruitt, leave to Becky Swaim, my dates with the Philadelphia Hippies, in hopes that she will make a better "flower child" than I.

MY TASK

To love someone more dearly ev'ry day,
To help a wandering child to find his way,
To ponder o'er a noble thought, and pray,
And smile when evening falls,
This is my task.

To follow truth as blind men long for light,
To do my best from dawn of day till night,
To keep my heart fit for His holy sight,
And answer when He calls,
This is my task.

Sechrest Funeral Service

CHAPEL — FAMILY ROOM — OFF STREET PARKING

Many thousands of families since 1897 have found deep solace in entrusting to Sechrest the final rites for a loved one. Now, those who are bereaved gain added comfort and convenience from two locations. Such blending of long experience and modern science creates a final ceremony of memorable beauty, tenderness and dignity.
